2. Accepting and Approving Financial Reports August 2017

   Motion) Angie Brown  Second) Silas Begay  Vote: 47-0-10

   David Kedelty: Inquiry on Action Item #5 is not funded yet, why are we approving scholarships if there are no funds to cover the expense.

   Judy Martin: Shares the same concern over Action Item #5.

   Willis Becenti: Disagrees with the present course of pre-approving Scholarships, and other funds for the upcoming FY18 Chapter Budget.

   Judy Martin: One more thing, regarding the budget, it was an embarrassing event when the audit findings were in the media.
Cognizant of awful administration, such as scholarships, need to be conducted in a lawful manner as scheduled. The budget is not available at the moment, and no funds are available.

Winnie Henry: This happen to us, undermined during the administration of Margie R.S. Begay, regarding the negative and low fund balances. We are asking for people to be present. We are on the wrong streak, and we are moving too quickly.

Regarding the scholarship, potentially utilized the General Fund and leave the other fund till later, we are hoping to move forward.

Delegate Begaye: Being here with the availability of the current chapter leadership; and when the community accepts their ownership of their leadership in the community.

There are funds that need to be expensed.

Bernice Harvey: Motion to move on to the next agenda item, because Action Item#5 is being addressed in the wrong order. All Agree

Approved

4. Accepting and Proving Chapter Fiscal Year 2018 Budget.

Motion) Angie Brown Second) Silas Begay Vote: 51-0-9

Secretary/Treasurer Nata’ani: Presented Chapter Fiscal Year 2018 Budget for acceptance. FY18 Budget was created through the assistance of DCD-ASC.

The Chapter community should not interpret the current budget as the only amount for FY18, as the Navajo Nation Council is known to disburse other funds to chapter governments.

Vice President Begay: Re-iterated the assistance of DCD-ASC

Judy Martin: Inquiry on the Action Item – for Acceptance and Approval?

Delegate Begaye: The FY18 Budget for all chapters was meticulously prepared by many agents and agencies of the Navajo Nation central government, and we are only formally accepting and approving the FY18 Budget at this time.

Judy Martin: In the end, we must be mindful of our every step is lawful and accurate.

David Kedelty: Are we absolutely getting the funds integrated into the FY17, once we approve the Budget? I feel that we are not following the necessary steps that are accountable or transparent? What are the steps for lawfully accepting a Chapter Budget?

Secretary/Treasurer Nata’ani: (Responding to David Kedelty) The current process is lawful, and I am willing to sit with you for a one-on-one session.

Resolution Approved

CLUPc Vice President Margie R.S. Begay: Presenting ICIP packet.

Angie Brown: The projects are being set in the middle. Cemetery has been an issue on the agenda for many years; this has been on the agenda.

What is the difference this time?

CLUPc Vice President Margie R.S. Begay: Mentioning that there are many instances of unfinished project that, at one point, were faithfully started projects.
Vice President Begay: Supports ICIP.

Delegate BeGaye: Appropriations Act has been integrated into the community land-use plan. ICIP is an integral part of the new chapter system.

Lukachukai Chapter President Samuel Yazzie: Responding to the Angie Brown. Responding to the new Homesite Lease Policies, and the new policies of our current age have changed.

Daniel Staley: Blackrock Chapter Area, where the road is severely unaccommodating during inclement weather. Thankful for the new ICIP

Winnie Henry: Thankful for the priority of Blackrock area on ICIP list. Please continue to follow the rules.

Please find the money that disappeared, I am not going to stop talking about it, till it is fully revealed.

Farm Board had asked for funding but never successful, suddenly, there was money available.

Ke’ – where is the ke’.

1. Diné College: Student Outreach – Mr. Harvey (no show)
2. Lukachukai School presentation by Samuel Yazzie.

Lukachukai Chapter President Samuel Yazzie: Explaining proposed school.

Winnie Henry: There are plenty of work involved in the developing large-scale projects.

Delegate BeGaye: Recommends for Lukachukai to lobby HEHSC for support.

Angie Brown: Constituency needs to express their concerns.
I will continue to pursue the lost funds, where did it go?
My words might seem harsh, but I am only one of many frustrated constituents.

Rosie: Question on School: High School included?
Tsaile Public School is discussing a potential site for high school

 Resolution is being requested for the will be brought to the planning meeting.

Lupita McClanahan: A local high school is greatly needed. We could use the high school ‘card’ as our demand with Diné College.

Concern for budget, and the article in the newspaper; must be mindful of the process, where there is much effort to be lawful.
